This bespoke family home offers all you could want. The huge open plan living area, equipped with electronic entertainment set up, leads into the culinary kitchen with gas cooking that also contains a European laundry with a washing machine included. The expansive master bedroom has an ensuite to die for with all luxury conveniences. The three other rooms have built in robes. Outside the property is as close to resort living as you could possibly want. The massive undercover entertaining area, with built in fire place, leads out to the pool and spa overlooked by a relaxing undercover bungalow. Properties of this calibre do not come available often. Pets upon application.
