Absolute waterfront living at its best!!

Imagine waking up and walking out onto your front balcony to a leisurely breakfast, as you sit and look out over Lake Hume Weir watching the birds on the foreshore fossicking for food, with the gentle breeze blowing on your face as you gaze out at the beautiful views up the valley with the sun rays glistening on the water below.

This property is perfectly positioned on the most coveted streets in Tallangatta and is available for your inspection.

Features include four generous sized bedrooms, all with split systems.

The main open plan living area is north facing and looks out to the balcony through tinted sliding glass doors to the stunning water views over the water and up the Tallangatta Valley.

Split System heating and cooling as well as a fireplace ensures year round comfort.
