

47 Jillico Avenue Tallangatta VIC

4 3 2

This modernist mid-century inspired split level home built in the 1980's comes with exceptional elevated views of Lake Hume.

Two spacious living rooms feature north facing floor to ceiling windows and doors that take full advantage of the vista and allow for an abundance of natural light.

Entry for this unique family home is at street level with undercover car parking, then expect to be surprised by the hidden private in-ground pool as you embark towards the front entrance.

Discover the vaulted timber beam ceilings, exposed brick walls and luxury vinyl flooring in the formal living area complete with wood burning fireplace for the cooler nights. In the second living area there is more than enough room for a large dining setting alongside the recently updated
